

NUS Sado Club
シンガポール国立大学茶道部

Membership Fee

Individuals interested in learning Japanese Tea Ceremony under the Enshu Tea School are welcome to join our club as members. Members would be able to join the weekly practices on weekdays and the weekend practices that occur twice a month. Practice dates and timings are regularly updated on our Facebook Page. Interested individuals can refer to the flowchart on below to determine their membership fees.

Refers to full-time students

* Includes Yale-NUS students and students taking a Masters degree in NUS

^ JSS refers to the Japanese Studies Society in NUS.

Please note that the above membership fees do not apply to individuals who have joined the tea ceremonies as guests and have not learnt or practiced Japanese tea ceremony with the club. If there are any queries, please contact us through our Facebook Page or our website at <https://www.nussadoclub.org/>.